CAMDEN TO BLUE HILL

From the MAINE STAY INN turn left on Rt. 1 north.

Points of interest heading north include the town of Belfast (18)* which has some nice old houses; Moose Point State Park (23); the Maritime Museum in Searsport (25); Fort Point State Park in Stockton Springs (30); and Fort Knox (36). Restored by the State, the Fort Knox is now a park. It is situated on a high bluff overlooking the Penobscot River and the town of Bucksport. (36)

Just after passing through Orland turn south on Rt. 15 (42) toward the village of Blue Hill.

Blue Hill (54) is the home of many writers, artists and potters. We recommend a stop in at least one of the several pottery shops. For an informal, summertime lunch we recommend an Adirondack chair on the back lawn of Jean-Paul's Bistro, located on Main St., tel. 207-374-5852 - the food is good and the view is lovely. For dinner try the Arborvine www.arborvine.com on the Main street in the village (tel. 207-374-2119), about one mile east on the Surry Road. If you want to stay overnight, we recommend the Blue Hill Inn. (207 374 2844)

While you are in Blue Hill be sure to visit Deer Isle. Just continue south on Rt. 15 toward Deer Isle and Stonington. You will pass over Eggemoggin Reach to Little Deer on a large bridge and then turn left and go over the causeway to Big Deer Isle. (66)

There are two villages on the island -- Deer Isle (71) and Stonington (76). The Pilgrim's Inn, 20 Main Street, in Deer Isle village www.pilgrimsinn.com (tel. 207-348-6615), is an outstanding place to stay -- and the food gets rave reviews. Stonington is a quaint fishing port at the southern terminus of Rt. 15. From Stonington you can take the mail boat (the MINK or the MISS LIZZIE) over to Isle Au Haut. Be sure to call 207 367 5193 for a reservation.
