CAMDEN TO MONHEGAN ISLAND - DAY TRIP

From the MAINE STAY INN take Rt. 1 south to Rt. 131 in Thomaston and then head east toward Port Clyde. (30)* You will need to take the Laura B from Port Clyde at the first sailing (07:00) or the second trip at 10:30. The 11 mile trip takes about an hour.

Coming home you will need to take the 16:30 (that's 4:30pm for all of the landlubbers) boat back to the mainland. You will get back to Port Clyde at about 18:00. The line is operated by the Monhegan Boat Line www.monheganboat.com. For all information you can check their website or call at 207-372-8848.

If you want to get settled at the inn and then go into the village for dinner head north on Rt. 131 to the junction of Rt. 1. Turn right and then stay on Rt. 1 north through Rockland to Camden.

Another option is to enjoy the sunset at the Marshall Point Lighthouse which is only a mile from the public landing in Port Clyde. You will see the light as you enter the harbor and the road back to it is well marked. Now head north on Rt. 131 for about five miles and turn right onto Rt. 72 toward Tenant's Harbor.

If you stayed overnight on the island and you take one of the earlier boats back to the mainland, you will be able to make a few more stops. Go north on Rt. 131 through Tenant's Harbor to St. George where you will turn right on Rt. 73 toward Spruce Head. If you want to walk along a very quiet, sand beach, we recommend a stop at Birch Point State Park. You will see signs for the park on the right side of Rt. 73.

Continuing north on Rt. 73 you will pass the Owl's Head Transportation Museum where you will find a superb collection of vintage cars, aircraft and much more.

Next stop should be the Farnsworth Art Museum in the center of Rockland. The Farnsworth has a great collection of "Maine Art" and an entire building housing an extensive collection of paintings by three generations of the Wyeth family.

Next stop - the MAINE STAY INN.
